

2006 Oklahoma Medal for Excellence in College & University Teaching

General Information

The Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence is a privately funded statewide nonprofit organization created to recognize and encourage academic excellence in Oklahoma's public schools. Each year an independent committee selects winners of the Oklahoma Medal for Excellence in Teaching and Administration in the following categories: public elementary school teaching, public secondary school teaching, public college & university teaching and public school administration. Each of the four educators selected receives a $7,500 cash award and a glass sculpture designed specifically for this award. In addition, $1,000 will be awarded to the respective school, department or school system of each of the four award winners. Honorees will be recognized at the Academic Awards Banquet in Tulsa on May 20, 2006.

Basic Criteria:

1. The nominee must currently be employed by a public college or university in Oklahoma and must have demonstrated excellence in education. Each nominee's performance will be evaluated in terms of his/her own particular teaching environment.
2. The nominee must have a teaching component in his/her current job description.
3. Anyone is eligible to make nominations for these awards.

Essay & Recommendations

Statement from the Nominee: The statement from the nominee must be limited to three double-spaced typewritten pages.

As an accomplished teacher, you base your practice on principles of learning that have proven effective for you. These principles may be based on prevailing theories of cognition, on truths learned from many years in the classroom or on time-tested philosophies. Along with these principles, you have at your command a range of instructional techniques. You know when each is appropriate and you are able to implement each as needed.

Describe the principles that guide you as a teacher and explain how your instructional techniques reflect these principles. When appropriate, give specific examples from your teaching practice.

Statement from the Nominator: The statement from the nominator must be limited to two typewritten pages.

Accomplished teachers are exceptional managers and monitors of student learning.

Describe the exceptional merits of the nominee.

Letters of Recommendation: Each letter of recommendation must be limited to two typewritten pages.

Attach two letters of recommendation. These letters should specify the writer's relationship to the nominee and give specific examples that illustrate the teaching qualifications of the nominee. One letter must be from a former or current student; the other may be from an administrator, colleague or parent of a student of the nominee.
