

National Association of Education Foundations

Member Benefits

Every day, our efforts become more critical to sustain and improve the education to children in school systems across the nation. The National Association of Education Foundations (NAEF) is a community of education foundation leaders who are ready and willing to share their knowledge and experience. Seize this unique opportunity to enhance your professional development and network with industry peers.

15% discount on D&O, General Liability, Property and Embezzlement (Crime) Insurance through AIM Insurance. AIM specializes in educational non-profits and can reduce insurance costs on average 60%. They offer a simple application process and 30-year track record of standing behind the organizations they insure.

50% discount on set-up for Alumni Nations, a community engagement provider ($3,250 in savings). Alumni Nations helps to find and nurture community supporters (including alumni), develop a research-based engagement strategy, create a narrative and communications plan, produce content, provide a donor and community relationship management system (CRM), and website (CMS)

$75 Subscription to Grant Station (up to $624 savings). Offered regularly for $699, a one-year subscription to Grant Station will provide your organization with access to a large nation-wide database of grant makers in your community and across the nation.

A special one-year subscription to SchoolAuction.net, including 4 credit-card readers for the group to keep. This special subscription is a $200 discount off the regular subscripiton. Sign up for a free 14-day trial and then subscribe and save.

Discount on Firespring's integrated website, email and fundraising platforms. You will receive significant savings on a new website. Approximately $750 Savings. Visit their website to learn more and get started - you could have a robust new website in a matter of weeks.

15% first year discount on Bloomerang Donor Management System (average $540 savings). Bloomerang has created a unique donor management system that guides you through how to build donor loylaty and commitment, then gives you the tools you need to perform those crucial activities effectively and efficiently.

- 24/7 Access to foundation resources, where your board and staff can view sample policies, procedures, job descriptions, District MOU's, succession plan templates, past webinars, and more.
- Complimentary registration to monthly webinars led by industry experts which address topics such as Board Development, Fundraising, Marketing, and Alumni and Community Engagement
- Complimentary career postings on the NAEF website.